

Art Gallery Website

Overview

Art gallery is a website that allows the users to create accounts, browse and buy art pieces. The system includes administrative privileges for admins to manage the website.

Project justification

The system is designed for artists to display and sell their artwork.

Phases of Work and Timeline

Phase I: Collecting information and requirements from users and understanding the domain of the problem. Sep 6 - Oct 11

Phase II: designing use case models and setting constraints and quality attributes Oct 12 - Nov 4

Phase III: developing the website according to the design and requirements. Nov 5 - Dec 7

Metrics for Evaluating and Monitoring

Making sure the deliverables relevant to the scope of the project. The system meets its functional and non-functional requirements. for example, all transactions done through the system are secure with a high level of successful rate. And low overall operational errors